

THE GOOD $ENSE
SPENDING PLAN WORKSHOP

When: 4 consecutive Wednesday evenings – Jan. 13, 20, 27, & Feb. 3, 2010 from 7:00 to 9:15 pm

Where: SUMC

Instructor: Charlie Schubiger

Cost: $10 to cover provided materials

Do you seek to be a good and faithful trustee of the money provided to you by God? Do you ever feel like money has control over you instead of the other way around? Does learning how to apply biblical principles to handle your finances in a God-honoring way sound like time well spent? Then this workshop is for you! Come and learn how to create a spending plan that will lead to your financial freedom.

This workshop, created by the Willow Creek Community Church, will cover the basics and provide practical tips so that you can become a: Diligent Earner, Generous Giver, Wise Saver, Cautious Debtor, and Prudent Consumer.

The workshop will be taught in a variety of formats including multimedia presentations, lecture, discussions, and exercises. While you will be utilizing your personal financial information and income/spending data during the workshop, this need not be shared with anyone else and will remain confidential. You will finish this workshop with a spending plan in hand and the knowledge necessary to implement it!

This workshop is open to all and would be especially beneficial to those living paycheck to paycheck or nearing financial crisis; those who are near to or just entering the workforce; those who are nearing or in retirement; or anyone seeking to handle their finances in a God-honoring way.

Reserve your spot by completing the registration form below and either placing in the offering plate, giving directly to Charlie Schubiger, or mailing to the church office at 91 Main St., Succasunna NJ 07876. The registration deadline is Jan. 3. Any questions, call Charlie at 973-252-3770 or email at cschubiger@gmail.com.
